Assumption of the Blessed Mother is celebrated by Catholics on August 15th..

All-powerful and ever-living God, you raised the sinless Virgin Mary, mother of your Son, body and soul to the glory of heaven. May we see heaven as our final goal and come to share her glory. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

REMINDER

Holy Communion service will continue in each club house at 11:30 a.m. on Sunday morning.

Mass will be celebrated on Wednesday, August 11th, at 1:30 p.m. in the Chapel.

Volunteers are needed as altar servers, lectors, readers, choir members, extraordinary ministers, ushers, and greeters. Please consider participating in this wonderful opportunity to appreciate one of the most important parts of our catholic faith.

The Rosary is available to view on Ann's Choice channel 977 everyday at 7:30 a.m. and 11:00a.m.

A couple in their nineties are both having some short-term memory loss.

While in for a checkup, the physician says that physically they're okay, but since they're having trouble remembering things, they might want to start writing things down.

Later that evening they're sitting and reading, when the husband gets up. "Would you like anything from the kitchen?" he asks. "Some vanilla ice cream," his wife replies. "Okay."

"Shouldn't you write it down so you don't forget it?" she asks. "Don't worry, I won't forget." "Well," she says. "A few raspberries on top would be great. You want to write that down?"

"I've got it, honey. A bowl of vanilla ice cream with raspberries on top." "And chocolate sauce, too. Maybe you'll forget that. Want me to write it down for you?"

A little miffed, he replies, "I've got it! Ice cream, raspberries and chocolate sauce. I don't need it written down, for gosh sakes!"

He waddles out to the kitchen. A half hour later, he comes back with a plate of ham and scrambled eggs, and gives it to his wife.

She stares at the plate a few seconds, then says, "You forgot my toast."

"Hospital Regulations"

Hospital rules state that patients checking out must have a wheel chair. One day a newly graduated nurse assistant came into the room to find an elderly man fully dressed. He was sitting on the bedside chair, with a piece of packed luggage at his side, all ready to go.

When he was shown the wheelchair, he was adamant that he was fully capable of walking himself to the parking lot.

But the assistant told him rules were rules, so he relented and let her wheel him out.

In the elevator, the assistant asked the elderly man if his wife was coming to meet him.

"Hearing Better Now"

An elderly man was having hearing problems and went to see a specialist. The doctor fitted him with some hearing aids that brought his hearing back to full strength.

After a few weeks the man came back to make sure the new equipment was working properly, which it was.

The hearing specialist said, "It all seems perfect. Your family should be delighted you can hear everything now."

"Oh no," the man responded. "I haven't told any of them. I just sit quietly, listening carefully. I've changed my will four times."

Apparently you have to eat healthy more than once to get in shape. This is cruel and unfair.

I always knew I'd get old. How fast it happened was a bit of a surprise, though.

I am starting to think I will never be old enough to know better.
