

PROTESTANT FELLOWSHIP COMMUNITY NEWSLETTER

April 2020

"Find rest, O my soul, in God alone; my hope comes from Him. He alone is my rock and my salvation; he is my fortress, I will not be shaken. My salvation and my honor depend on God; He is my mighty rock, my refuge. Trust in Him at all times, O people; pour out your hearts to Him, for God is our refuge." Psalm 62:5-8

Think of all the things in your life that have come along and shaken you: a failed exam, sudden illness, a move, divorce, death of a loved one, burglary, natural disaster, car accident. Living with uncertainty can be one of the most spiritually painful exercises for us. We fill the open space with catastrophic thoughts and fears. Embrace the words of the Psalms, may you find peace in God and comfort in His trustworthy Word.

Information about the Protestant Fellowship, its activities and Sunday afternoon worship services can be found on the Ann's Choice Resident website.

Enter the pseudo name www.acresidents.org in your web browser. This will take you to the Home page. The Sunday Chapel bulletins are still being uploaded onto the Ann's Choice Resident website, so that you can follow the service from home!

Check your ACTV listings for "Favorite Hymns of Faith," a reflective program of inspirational organ music and beautiful photos presented by ACH resident and organist Bud Williams.

Check out the Chapel Channel – 976 or 980. We are recording new content every week and running it on a continuous loop. If there is anything you would like to see or hear, let Pastoral Ministries know!

Holy Week is almost here! On Palm Sunday, April 5th, we will sing "Hosanna" and celebrate the Lord's Supper virtually. Prepare your own elements at home! We will broadcast live services on Maundy Thursday and Good Friday at 11:00am from the Chapel. Easter Sunday (April 12), organist Bud Williams will present "A Musical Journey from Palm Sunday to the Resurrection" at 1:15pm, immediately followed by Easter Sunday Service at 2:00pm.

Please do not come to the Chapel during these live broadcast events!
