

PROTESTANT FELLOWSHIP COMMUNITY NEWSLETTER

March 2020

"For the Word of God is living and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow." Hebrews 4:12

God reveals Himself dynamically to us through His Word. When we open the Bible, we are opening a living document that speaks to us, convicts us, instructs us, and inspires us. We can trust that God's Spirit brings out His Word to help us understand it. If we feed ourselves a steady diet of God's Word, it becomes like a skilled surgeon, penetrating our entire being with precision. Similarly, His Word informs every area of our lives, so that nothing in our lives remains untouched by God's Word. What Word does God have for you today?

Information about the Protestant Fellowship, its activities and Sunday afternoon worship services can be found on the Ann's Choice Resident website.

Enter the pseudo name www.acresidents.org in your web browser. This will take you to the Home page. Then click on "Sunday Protestant Service Updates" near the top of the page.

The Sunday Chapel bulletins are now being uploaded onto the Ann's Choice Resident website. If you can't make it to Chapel, you can follow along from home!

Are you regularly homebound and watch the Chapel services on TV? If you would like to receive home communion, contact Susan Sciarratta in Pastoral Ministries 215-443-4925.

Check your ACTV listings for "Favorite Hymns of Faith," a reflective program of inspirational organ music and beautiful photos presented by ACH resident and organist Bud Williams.

Holy Week and the Community Remembrance Service are coming up! If you enjoy our ecumenical and/or interfaith services at Ann's Choice, consider joining the Ecumenical Committee or Interfaith Committee to help us plan and offer these services. Contact Jim Sutton, ACH Pastoral Ministries Manager, at 215-443-3831 for more information.
