"Father, Forgive"

Likewise, the Spirit helps us in our weakness, for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with groanings too deep for words. Romans 8:26

St. Michael's Cathedral in Coventry, England, was bombed almost to destruction during the Coventry Blitz of Thursday, November 14, 1940. Only the tower, spire, the outer wall, and the bronze effigy and tomb of its first bishop, Huyshe Yeatman-Biggs, survived. The ruins of this older cathedral remain hallowed ground. Worship was held in the cathedral ruins on Sunday.

Following the bombing of the cathedral, Provost Richard Howard had the words "Father Forgive" inscribed on the wall behind the altar of the ruined building (at the far end of the ruins in the picture above).

The inscription is asking God the Father to forgive.

But it does not specify who needs to be forgiven. Nor why.

An initial thought, given the circumstances, might be that citizens of Coventry are asking that the Germans be forgiven. Or perhaps, it is a prayer by those who had been bombed asking for forgiveness for hating Germans. Or perhaps, the prayer is asking the Spirit to intervene because human spirits do not know how to pray at that time.

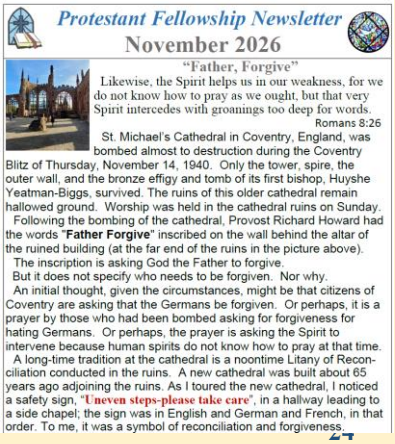

A long-time tradition at the cathedral is a noontime Litany of Reconciliation conducted in the ruins. A new cathedral was built about 65 years ago adjoining the ruins. As I toured the new cathedral, I noticed a safety sign, "Uneven steps-please take care", in a hallway leading to a side chapel; the sign was in English and German and French, in that order. To me, it was a symbol of reconciliation and forgiveness.

- "The mission of Operation Christmas Child is to demonstrate God's love in a tangible way to children in need around the world. - Spotlight on Mission – Operation Christmas Child
- In the summer of 1993, Samaritan's Purse President Franklin Graham received a call from a man in England asking if he'd be willing to fill shoeboxes with gifts for children in Eastern Europe. Franklin agreed, but figured Christmas was months away. He forgot about the promise until he received a call back around Thanksgiving asking about the gifts.

- Spotlight on Mission – Operation Christmas Child
- Franklin asked his friend, the late Pastor Ross Rhoads of Calvary Church of Charlotte to see if he could help with the need. A Sunday shortly afterward, Pastor Rhoads demonstrated for his congregation how to fill a shoebox with simple gifts and encouraged them to include a letter to the child as well. Within weeks, the church had 11,000 shoeboxes lining their hallways.

- Reminder – Hearing Loop System in Chapel
  - A couple of years ago when new carpeting was installed in the chapel, a hearing loop system was installed.
  - A T-coil, or telecoil, is a small copper coil in a hearing aid that functions as a wireless antenna that links to the broadcast from the "hearing loop" system.
  - It results in significantly improved listening by making speech much clearer.
  - It is an option on most hearing aids.
